

Premiere!

Are you familiar with Greece as a food nation?
Come and discover it at a major professional event in central Stockholm on 5 November.

On Thursday, 5 November 2026, 82 food and beverage producers from six regions of Greece will gather in Stockholm for an exclusive industry event focused on innovation, craftsmanship, and the future of Mediterranean food. The event is the highlight of Stockholm Greek Month 2026, which throughout November showcases Greek products in Stockholm's stores and restaurants.

We would like to invite you, together with a selected group of decision-makers from the grocery retail sector, category managers, importers, distributors, foodservice professionals, journalists, and opinion leaders. What unites them is an interest in discovering exceptional products and building valuable business relationships.

Your opportunities include:

Meet Greek producers in person
(no appointments required)

Learn about Greek wines and indigenous grape varieties

Discover premium products not yet available in Sweden

Meet senior decision-makers from across the industry

Explore innovations and new business opportunities

Continue the conversations during the evening's Networking cocktail dinner

Date: Thursday, 5 November 2026

Venue: Snickarbacken 4, Norrmalm, Stockholm
(Finland House)

Time: Drop in between 10-17.00, followed by a Networking Cocktail Dinner from 17:30–20:30

Places are limited and the event is exclusive to invited guests. Please RSVP to rsvp@theflavourofgreece.com and let us know whether you will attend the event and the dinner.

RSVP deadline: 21 October.

Welcome to a day of exceptional products, inspiring connections, and commercial opportunities.

Kind regards,

Antonis Sioulis
